Woking, Byfleet, Chobham & New Haw Edition

P&G recently announced a 10 year partnership with the International Olympic Committee, starting with London 2012. With the 2012 Olympics just around the corner, this year we are looking for local groups who will benefit from receiving a cash grant for their sports project. Once again P&G has generously offered a prize fund of £15,000, to be divided up and awarded to projects that will benefit youth sport in our community. Three individual cash grants of £3000, £1000 and £750 will be available in each of the three categories:

Children (0-10 years)
Children (11-15 years)
Young Adults (16-18 years)

There will also be a discretionary £750 "Special Achievement" award given to a project of the judges' choice, which might not necessarily have received a high number of votes, but which, in their opinion, is particularly deserving of a cash grant. Please note that any group, which received a cash grant from last year's Community Matters campaign will not be eligible to enter for this year's campaign. All those shortlisted by the judges will appear in our Community Matters feature which will be published later in the year, when it will be up to our readers to vote for the winners in each category.

We look forward to hearing from you.
