

For Official use only	Reference Number	Award Category
-----------------------	------------------	----------------

In no more than 150 words, please describe why the nominee deserves an award

In no more than 100 words, please describe the activity the nominee is involved in that has led to this nomination

In no more than 250 words give specific examples of the effect or benefit of the nominee's actions or activities

Declaration (to be signed by person completing the form)

I hereby certify that the information given on this form is correct.

I agree to the terms and conditions of submitting a nomination for the Peace Awards.

Your name _____ Relationship to the nominee _____

Your email _____ Your phone number _____

Signature _____ Date _____

DETACH HERE

Manchester PeaceWeek 2008 Awards Dinner

Saturday March 8th at City of Manchester Stadium

MANCHESTER CITY
FOOTBALL CLUB

Outstanding Social Behaviour Awards (the OSBAs) 2008 Nomination Form

CARISMA

PEACE
WEEK
08

PeaceWeek is about generating good news in an area known for bad, showing the world another side to communities affected by gang violence, one of positivity, creativity and fun.

Since its beginnings in 2003, PeaceWeek has grown to become a major event as each year more and more people, groups, organisations and businesses join in.

- These awards are to recognise and reward outstanding contributions to peace and positive community life in Manchester. There are six categories for which nominations can be made.
- Nominations can be submitted by anyone who lives or works in Manchester provided that he or she is acquainted with the work of the nominee and has permission from the nominee to submit their name/activities for an award.
- Any individual or organisation can be nominated (self-nominations are accepted) providing that they are resident or based in Manchester and have been carrying out their activity for a minimum of 6 months.
- Nominations can only be made by submitting an official nomination form. Copies can be downloaded from www.peaceweek.org.uk or by contacting Carisma.
- All nominations must be submitted on or before the closing date of Friday, February 22nd.
- The information provided will be disclosed only to the judges and Carisma/PeaceWeek staff/officers on a strictly confidential basis.
- The judges will draw up a shortlist of finalists in each category. All finalists will be given a pair of free tickets to the Awards Dinner along with selected runners-up.
- The winners will be announced at the Awards Dinner on Saturday March 8th 2008. The decision of the judges is final and no correspondence will be entered into before or after the judging.

Manchester PeaceWeek 2008 Outstanding Social Behaviour Awards

Return entries by February 22 to:
Carisma
No fixed abode
Manchester

space for logos

Award Categories

Please tick the award category you wish to nominate for:

- Community Cohesion/Diversity Award: Individual or group who have been instrumental in bringing together diverse groups in the community for positive change
- Young Person's Award: Young person (aged 11-18) who has made an outstanding contribution to their school or community
- Positive Role model Award: Person who has had most positive affect on young people through their lives.
- Turn Around Award: Individual who has made greatest turnaround in attitude/behaviour to benefit his/her community
- Peace Activist Award: Person or group who have made a difference through campaigning for peace and justice.
- Manchester Peace Award: Individual who has made the most outstanding contribution to their community

About the nominee:

First name _____ Surname _____

Nominee Address _____

_____ Postcode _____

Nominee Phone _____ Nominee Email _____

Terms and Conditions: (1) Carisma reserves the right to make enquiries about nominations and this may include references from local agencies or organisations acquainted with the activity. (2) Nominations can be submitted for nominees in more than one category providing that the activity described is different in each category and is relevant for the specified category. (3) Write clearly in black ink or type as illegible nominations will not be considered. (4) The organisers reserve the right to cancel any categories or add new categories as they see fit, and to not to make awards in any category if the standard of entry does not warrant it (5) The organisers are not obliged to justify the decisions of the judging panel. (6) The organisers will not be responsible for entries which may be damaged, lost or mislaid in the post. Once received, entries remain the property of the organisers. (7) All nominees must be prepared to receive media coverage and this should be accepted as a condition of entry. (8) The organisers reserve the right to publish general material about the winners as case studies of peace champions. (9) The Awards are not open to any employees or officers of Carisma/PeaceWeek.