Cheers to Manchester

To celebrate the launch of The Changing Face of Manchester Volume 3, sponsors of the book, Holt's Brewery, has a case of their delicious Champion Ales range to give away to five lucky readers.

The Changing Face of Manchester offers a fascinating insight into the changing landscape of the city over the last 150 years. Holt's Brewery has played an integral part in shaping the city's industrial heritage.

Founded in 1849 by Joseph Holt, the company now owns over 130 pubs in and around the Greater Manchester area and produces an award winning range of bottled and draught beers.

The company still remains in the hands of the Holt family to this day. Chief Executive Richard Kershaw is the great, great grandson of the company founder. The Holt's name is as famous on the streets of Manchester today as it ever was: in a recent poll by readers of the Manchester Evening News, Joseph Holt was voted the city's greatest ever business leader.

To be in with the chance of winning a case of Holt's Champion Ales which includes delicious delights such as Humdinger, Maple Moon, Gold Medal winner 1849 and the recently launched Pioneer, simply answer the following question:
