Having trouble walking your dog?

WALKABOUT can help. As a company it has a long established friendly dog-walking club.

You can join a social pack walk and meet new friends or book a professional handler to take your dog out on a daily or occasional basis.

As a pack member, your dog needs to know his or her place, and this can be reinforced while out on a walk.

But if your dog is forever running off and not coming back, continually pulling to get to other dogs, or even worse barking and having a go at cyclists, joggers, children or other people, then most people avoid taking their dog out. Then the frustrated energy builds up inside the dog and behaviour gets worse.

What you need then is to ask one of Walkabout's team to come and collect your dog and exercise it properly, rebalance the energy in the dog and get it to behave better for everyone. The result is one happy dog.

It does not matter what size your dog is. They all need to have regular exercise. But often our work life pressures prevent us from giving our dogs what they need.

But how do you learn how to get your dog to walk properly for you? Well once your dog has learnt how to behave well in the pack, it starts to become a habit.

Then you need to join Walkabout's social walks and learn how to respond when your dog misbehaves. Social walks are also available for anyone who is keen to walk with other people and dogs and help their dogs learn how to behave.

Walkabout has been established in the Courier area for more than ten years, offering a dog socialisation service alongside its training and rehabilitation groups.

Due to expansion within the training team it now has space for more dogs to join and enjoy the social aspect of a fully supervised pack walk.

All dogs remain under strict control — there are rules that control the number of dogs walked with one person — and are fully supervised by the team leaders.

Not only do the dogs enjoy their walk with doggy friends, they also let off steam, burn up energy and return home much more content.

So whether you want to join Walkabout for a walk, or ask one of the professional trainers to collect your dog and walk it with the group, you just need to call the office to discuss your requirements.

It is fully insured and all its vehicles are specially designed to carry dogs in a safe and secure way.

If you are interested in joining this service then please call the office to finalise the arrangements on 0845 226 8367 or visit www.walkaboutgroup.co.uk.

Clean up with 20% off oven cleaning

DUE to the continued high level of business it is experiencing the Shiny Oven company has decided to continue making special offers to Courier readers.

Managing director Chris Davies said: "We at Shiny Oven know that cleaning your oven must be the worst job in the house and that sometimes you are too busy to do it. Let us clean it for you to ensure your cooker is safe and healthy to use."

Have your oven spring cleaned, or perhaps get your barbecue ready for the summer. All prices quoted are all inclusive; there no hidden extras. If you have better things to do with your spare time, call the professionals. Call Chris for a quote today on 07940 523133 to see what Shiny Oven can do for you.

Spring clean oven

IS your oven in need of a spring clean this year? Call in Ovenclean Surrey and Hants, specialist in cleaning domestic ovens, hobs, microwaves and extractors.

Trained technicians can deal with all types of domestic oven, using the latest equipment and non-caustic cleaning technology to remove heavy grease and burnt-on carbon deposits that are the natural result of constant use.

There is no chemical smell during or after the cleaning process and the end result is an immaculate oven at an extremely competitive price. One satisfied customer was Mrs Johnson of Camberley. She saw the advertisement for Ovenclean in the paper and decided to give it a try.

She said: "They were excellent, my oven looked like new. I would recommend them to anyone."

To take advantage of the special spring promotion call Ovenclean Surrey and Hants on 01252 668358.

Top class blinds and awnings

BLINDS And Awnings is a local, reliable family business offering a first class service. It has the largest showroom in the area, with an enormous choice of styles and fabrics, and full working models.

Caribbean Quality Awnings create a safe sheltered outdoor area, offering shade and protection from the sun's ultraviolet light as well as those sudden showers. There are more than 200 Sattler fabric designs with Texgard coating. All Sattler fabrics are colour, light and weather fast, with the colour staying true no matter how strong the sunlight.

Blinds and Awnings offers a five-year warranty on all Caribbean Quality Awnings which is fully backed by the manufacturer. There is a vast range of blinds for the home, conservatory and office. There are more than 1,200 fabrics available for roman blinds and soft furnishings, with a room designated for you to browse the pattern books in comfort.

Perfect Fit is an ideal type of blind for conservatories. This revolutionary product means no drilling or screwing into your UPVC frames. It is available in venetian, pleated and roller format.

The blind styles available are fabric and vinyl vertical, aluminium venetian, wood venetian, panel, Paterno, roller, wood weave, pleated, roman and Velux.

For more details call 01252 875577, visit www.blindsandawnings.org or go to the showroom at 155 Yorktown Road, Sandhurst. It is open weekdays from 10am to 4pm and Saturdays from 10am to 3pm. Appointments are available during the day, evening and weekend.

Reduce anxiety and panic by hypnosis

DO you avoid work, other people or situations because you can't face them?

Are there times when you're really fearful or anxious? If so, hypnotherapy could break the loop you're in and bring back the way you want to feel.

"Hypnosis can teach you relaxation techniques and healthier response patterns, so you can approach difficult situations positively and work with your strengths," said Eve Kelsey of the Surrey Hypnosis Clinic.

"From general anxiety to panic attacks and post-traumatic stress, more and more people are turning to hypnotherapy because it can bring about change quickly."

If you would like to live without that anxiety, or if you want to find out more about how hypnosis can help with other issues, such as confidence, smoking, alcohol or weight gain, call Eve on 01276 65598.

Eve is registered with the British Society of Clinical Hypnosis and is a tutor for the London College of Clinical Hypnosis. Visit www.surreyhypnosisclinic.co.uk.

Dents removed fast and inexpensively

DENTS spoil the look of your car's bodywork and devalue it, but repairing it can be time-consuming and costly.

Fortunately there is a fast, inexpensive solution to restoring your car, and you don't even have to sacrifice your vehicle for the day to have it done.

Auto Car Care has been offering a paintless dent removal service for 12 years. Technician John Reed said: "Auto Car Care is a mobile service. I go to the customer's home or place of work so there is no need for them to lose time taking the car to the bodyshop. The dent is pushed back into shape without the need to repaint. The advantage of this is that the value of the car remains intact.

"Jobs can usually be carried out within the hour. What's more, the cost of the repair is a fraction of the price you would pay to have the dent filled and painted at a bodyshop and the repairs are of a superior quality."

For a free no obligation quote call John on 07956 594265.
