

Refectory gets taste for a new lease of life

THE Refectory in Milford reopened before Christmas having had a facelift and a change of management.

The all-new Blubeckers at the Refectory now offers good wholesome food and a great selection of drinks, served by a friendly team in relaxed surroundings.

The refurbishment has been carried out to a superb standard bringing a perfectly balanced combination of old and new with many of the stunning original features restored to their prime appearance.

The furniture gives a feeling of old pub character without compromising on quality.

From the expansive wall-hanging mirrors to the ingenious use of bronze wall plates, you find yourself seeing something new every time you visit.

The welcoming and spacious bar area is well planned to give optimum space for eating and drinking alike.

The bar is fully stocked with a whole host of beers, a range of wines by the glass, and coffees, making it the perfect place to call in for a peaceful drink with friends or colleagues.

The food on the menu really has to be tasted to be believed. From the traditional to the contemporary, from wholesome pies, fresh fish, mouth-watering pastas and salads, to legendary spare ribs, steak burgers and a packed specials board, there is something to keep everyone's taste buds more than happy.

All the dishes are prepared by skilled chefs with a passion for food. The emphasis truly is on quality, wholesome food served by a friendly team in beautiful surroundings.

The Refectory is not just a place to go for a meal, there is also a relaxing and comfortable bar area, traditional pub games, cosy seating, and a range of bar snacks and delicious coffees.

The entire family are welcome, with plenty of space indoors and out, and the benefit of a free car park.

The Refectory is definitely worth a visit for anyone with a love of food and drink, and it's not all about the grown-ups

The warm, welcoming and cosy interior at the all-new Blubeckers at the Refectory in Milford.

The children's menu is crammed full of wholesome dishes including secret recipe cottage pie, real cod fillet fish fingers, and chicken salad wraps, as well as a smaller portion of the famous and very popular Blubeckers spare ribs.

Almost all of the dishes come with a choice of fresh vegetables, salad or baked beans, and a jacket potato, mashed potato or fries.

With a selection of children's dishes in two sizes, there's plenty of choice for older children too.

The Refectory is now taking bookings for Valentine's Day. Blubeckers at The Refectory, can be found on the Old Portsmouth Road at Milford, near Godalming.
