The 3B's Town Hall, Reading

Something For Everyone at The 3B's

3B's bar has been well established at The Town Hall in Blagrove Street, Reading for almost 20 years. It remains one of the popular venues in the town centre and as an independent "pub" can rival the branded chain of establishments.

The bar has achieved a well deserved reputation for live music and entertainment during the evenings while offering everything from excellent sit down lunch fare to a cup of tea with homemade cakes and biscuits during the day.

The 3B's recently began offering an extensive tapas menu, which has proved popular with lunchtime business customers and the general public alike.

Live entertainment

Thursday nights are something of an institution at the 3B's when its famous Bohemian Night takes place. Performers blessed with varying levels of talent take to the stage and deliver music, comedy, poetry and loads more to the assembled audience.

The 3B's is also a well-known live music venue and hosts a large cross section of local talent on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

To celebrate Christmas, chief chef at The 3B's and Town Hall Paul Aberly has assembled a delicious reasonably priced menu, where companies can host a festive staff celebration in the bar in the afternoon before getting into town in the evening to continue the fun. Paul can cater for parties from 30-60 guests.
