ALMOST anything goes this season and for a wide range of the best designer chic head to Suzanne.

If it is a suit you are after the look is smart and sharp, while this season's dresses are pretty and floaty in beautiful pastel shades. Yellows and turquoises are in, as are neutral tones like soft dove grey.

Valentino's label includes very feminine tulip skirts that just look beautiful and Burberry has a stylish shirt-waister, safari-look dress that is a must-have for any discerning follower of fashion.

From casual wear to day outfits, suits, cocktail and evening wear, Suzanne has everything for the stylish woman in her 20s and upwards.

And you are guaranteed a friendly and helpful service that will make shopping a joy.

Questa

QUESTA would like to announce the arrival of its sensational new collection for the 2007 spring and summer season.

An array of international trends fill the store creating an eclectic mix proving how versatile Questa can be by demonstrating lots of different combinations of fashion.

World famous labels such as Nicole Farhi, Ralph Lauren and Missoni mix favourably with the audacious Hoss Intropia, always quirky Save the Queen and new girl Maliparmi. The focus is still on top denim rangers with the likes of Seven James and Joes always proving popular.

Marc Cain is a fantastic collection that surpasses itself from one season to the next and this has resulted in the opening of a new store by the Questa team in Westbourne grove.

All members of staff are approachable, but not pushy, and they are more than willing to help with your summer wardrobes.

Palmer Menswear

MEN are not known for their willingness to shop, especially when buying suits.

Faced with an array of styles, cloths and colours, most men just pick one from the rails and head for the tills.

Palmer Menswear is currently promoting its "made to measure" offer. Using the finest Italian and English fabrics, suppliers can produce your suit in just six weeks. Your requirements are met in every detail from a choice of linings to a functional cuff — you can even buy extra trousers (selected cloths) with each suit (not included in suit deal). More importantly your suit will be a guaranteed great fit.

A single made to measure suit would usually cost £450 but Palmer Menswear is offering a package of two suits for only £700.

So if you require two suits, or you want to kit yourself and your best man out for a wedding, visit Palmer Menswear at a time to suit you.
