The Hatch Gate Burghfield

The Hatch Gate is a 16th century inn which simply oozes character and charm, boasting oak beams, open fire and original artefacts.

Their philosophy is to offer a warm welcome to everyone, particularly families with a play area for younger children.

They offer an extensive menu using fresh local ingredients with all dishes home cooked to order. If you are pushed for time, you can phone in your order in advance.

The inn is separated into two distinct areas, the lounge bar and the sports bar.

The lounge bars offers two dining areas, within the bar area itself and the separate restaurant.

Dishes in the restaurant include lamb shank with a 'hint of mint', home made pies and soups, crispy tuna bake, vegetable & meat curries and home made lasagna with salad. All beautifully presented, these dishes represent excellent value for money.

Their Sunday lunch menu is superb with a range of meats to choose from as well as homemade specials, desserts from the board and their choice of speciality coffees are delicious. Once again children are not forgotten with a children's Sunday roast portion or kid's menu offering main meal, drink & ice cream, all for £3.95. Should the children become restless, they have crayons & colouring books available.

There is regular live entertainment in the lounge bar and quiz nights really bring the local community together.

Across in the sports bar, a large television features all major sporting events including rugby, football, cricket, tennis, F1 Grand Prix and many more. Enjoy the atmosphere with your friends and dine from the sports bar's simple menu.

On fine days you can also enjoy the pub's large garden with a safe fenced area for children to utilise the swings, slides and tree house, whilst sampling food from their snack menu. Jacket potatoes with a range of fillings, ploughman's, ciabattas, nachos and potato skins all provide quick but filling options, plus the special menu boards. The pub also boasts a comprehensive wine list with a choice that perfectly complements the dishes available.

Accommodation is available with two character twin bedded rooms with ensuite facilities in the converted stable block. The inn boasts excellent facilities to cater for functions including weddings, birthdays, christenings and anniversaries with room for up to 100 guests. Staff are happy to provide a range of buffet options starting from £7.50 per head.

The Hatch Gate Inn provides the perfect watering hole for a relaxing lunch, intimate dinner or gathering with friends and family.

You are always guaranteed a warm welcome, good food and excellent value for money. You will never leave hungry!

The Hatch Gate Inn truly is second to none.
