Lions' share is worth having

ONE of the driving forces behind charity fundraising in Guildford has been getting its message out to shoppers.

As part of Lions Awareness week – from October 13 to 20 – the Guildford branch of the international charity was out in force in the High Street.

During both Saturdays at each end of the awareness week, a Guildford Lions stall was set up outside the Guildhall.

Members of the charity were on hand to answer questions about their work, as well as give out programmes for a forthcoming event.

On November 5, Guildford Lions will hold its charity firework fiesta.

The fun starts in the High Street where a torch-lit procession gets under way, leading to a spectacular firework display at Stoke Park.

On Saturday, October 20, a separate charity fundraiser also got under way. Vic Quayle kicked off a 36-hour whistle stop tour of the "world", taking in places such as Normandy, Moscow, New York, Wellington and Quebec.

"All the places are in the United Kingdom," Vic explained.

"For example Normandy is just a few miles from Guildford town centre, while Moscow and Perth are in Scotland, Bethlehem is in Wales and Quebec is near Durham. Having just had a triple heart bypass operation, the aim of this amazing trip is to raise money for the Royal Brompton Hospital in Chelsea which specialises in heart and lung operations for the whole country."

More details on Vic's trip and how to support him, as well as information on Guildford Lions, is available via the website at www.guildfordlions.co.uk

Jenny and Vic Quayle prepare to set out on their motoring marathon.

Home service means Nina is staying ahead

NINA Hudson, a former colour technician in a busy Guildford

salon, has become a full-time mobile technician offering high quality, fashionable and classic colours, in the comfort of your own home.

Nina has trained with the highly acclaimed Toni & Guy, as well as doing courses with Wella and Vidal Sassoon.

"My aim is to provide a salon service to those who find it hard to get the time to spend in a salon," she said.

"Many of my existing clients are busy mums who find it a real help being able to have their hair coloured at home.

"Some clients even hold coffee mornings, in which they, along with friends, can have their hair done together, socialising at the same time."

Here are a few quotes from existing clients

"Nina takes great care to achieve exactly what her clients envisage, together with a professional and friendly service," Gerdi Secker, Guildford.

"Nina has that special touch, giving total confidence and great results every time," Nicola, Godalming.

"Nina is a brilliant colourist, and knows which colours will look best," Wendy Neal Smith, Farnham.

"Since she has been doing my hair I have had lots of compliments.

She's a lovely girl and I wouldn't hesitate to recommend her."
